No. 120

AMERICAN FIRST DAY COVER SOCIETY

January 17, 1971

To Whom It May Concern:

The Expertising Committee of the American First Day Cover Society has examined the following described cover: (submitted by Al Zimmerman)

#237

The 10¢ Columbian (Scott #237) used on 4¢ stamped envelope (Scott #U324 - legal size), handwritten address to Mr. J. F. Stone, East Lexington, Mass, from Box 85, Arlington Heights, Mass., stamp tied with hand cancel Arlington Heights, Mass., Dec. 31, 1892 and backstamped East Lexington, Mass., Dec. 31, 1892, and it is the opinion of the Committee that this cover is genuine, but a pre-First Day Cover for the 10¢ Columbian, inasmuch as the Columbian stamps could not be placed on sale officially until Jan. 1, 1893.
